STOMACHS ON STILTS.

The man who puts on stilts does not increase his actual stature. He only feels taller. Stimulants are the stilts of the stomach. They make a man feel better for the time being, but he feels a great deal worse for them afterward.

The need of the man whose stomach is "weak" is not stimulation but strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery perfectly answers that need. It contains no alcohol or whisky. It cures the weak, foul stomach with its attendant bad smelling breath, coated tongue, bad taste, poor appetite and kindred symptoms.

"In the year 1899 I had an attack of indigestion and got so bad that my house doctor said he could not do me any good," writes Mr. G. Trent, of Gordonville, Texas. "I wrote to you and you advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, so I bought six bottles, and when I commenced using it I was so weak could hardly walk about the house. By the time I had used one bottle my stomach and bowels commenced to heal. There were strips of the lining of my stomach or bowels (I don't know which) as large as a man's two fingers passed and I had a good deal of misery in my stomach and bowels, and also in the rectum especially. I could not eat anything without having much distress afterward, but by the time I had taken eight bottles of the Golden Medical Discovery I was sound and well, and could eat anything I pleased without suffering in the least. Could also do as much work in a day as I ever could. I have not suffered from the trouble since, and it was four years ago that I was so sick."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. He gains; you lose. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Conditions in the Congo.

Baron von Kritz, the Austrian explorer, who lately returned to Brussels from a visit to the Congo Independent State, in the course of an interview, yesterday, said his observations have given him the most favorable impression of the conditions in the Congo. He added:

"A sojourn in the Congo would convince any fair-minded man of the satisfactory administration of King Leopold's dependency. The Congo government has done everything possible to improve the condition of the natives. The latter are now infinitely better housed, clothed and fed than they were fifteen years ago. The hygienic conditions are better, and the natives are steadily acquiring the habits of civilization. The government has opened factories and manual training schools for the native children. The statement that compulsory military service is a disguised form of slavery is not tenable, since the conscription is practically the same as in European countries. Although isolated cases of cruelty may have occurred, this is not part of the Congo system, all officials guilty being severely punished."

The statement credited to Lord Denman that the Belgian Congo question would be submitted to the next peace conference at The Hague is discredited in official circles the official view being that The Hague conference is not competent to interfere in the Congo State home affair. It is maintained that the Congo State's existence as an independent nation does not depend upon the good will of the signatories of the Berlin conference, the United States and Germany both having recognized the State by treaty prior to the Berlin conference.

Wanted Matter Hushed Up.

Yesterday's proceedings in the case of Hugh Watt, the former member of the British Parliament, who is charged with attempting to bribe a private detective named Marshall to assist him in murdering Watt's former wife, were marked by the sensational withdrawal by the cattleman, Norman Battle, of the evidence which he gave September 22.

On that occasion Battle declared that he overheard a conversation between Marshall and another man in which Marshall was threatened. Battle yesterday said his real name was Lightfoot and that Watt, who was accompanied by a man describing himself as an equerry of King Edward, met the witness in Hyde Park August 24 and informed him that the King wished the case to be withdrawn.

At Watt's dictation Battle (or Lightfoot) wrote a letter to Watt's lawyer saying he could clear Watt. The latter also dictated the evidence which the witness gave September 22. Battle added that he had received about $200 from Watt and the equerry, was advised to go to Canada and was promised $25,000 and a government position for life.

Replying to further questions, Battle said the supposed equerry was introduced as "Lord Kinloch." The latter said the case was to be "hushed up" by order of the King, who was a friend of Lady Violet Watt.

The case was adjourned until October 27.

To Exclude Unitarians.

Officials of the Church Federation which is to meet in New York next month, have decided to exclude all members of the Unitarian denomination.

About 700 official delegates and alternates are going to New York, representing about 18,000,000 of church members. Among the duly elected officials were Dr. Edward Everett Hale, chaplain of the United States Senate; John D. Long, ex-Secretary of the navy, and Rev. Dr. Samuel A. Eliot, president of the American Unitarian Association. The committee in charge has declined to admit them as delegates.

There is a national federation of churches, aiming to bring Christian bodies into active support of measures on which all agree. This federation has been at work for two years on the meeting, and has succeeded in getting the official bodies of more than 20 denominations to name delegates. It was not the purpose to obtain organic union. The Unitarians supposed they were invited and named delegates. The action barring them out, it is said, brings Unitarians and Trinitarians into a clash on a larger scale than any before.

A Daredevil Ride

often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve." "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. Woman's Kidney Troubles

Mrs. J. W. Lang and Mrs. S. Frake

Of all the diseases known, with which women are afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless early and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Mrs. Pinkham, early in her career, gave exhaustive study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—was careful to see that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was sure to control that fatal disease, woman's kidney troubles. The Vegetable Compound acts in harmony with the laws that govern the entire female system, and while there are many so called remedies for kidney troubles, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women, and thousands have been cured of serious kidney derangements by it. Derangements of the feminine organs quickly affect the kidneys, and when a woman has such symptoms as pain or weight in the loins, backache, bearing down pains, urine too frequent, scanty or high colored, producing scalding or burning, or deposits like brick dust in it; unusual thirst, swelling of hands and feet, swelling under the eyes or sharp pains in the back running down the inside of her groin, she may be sure her kidneys are affected and should lose no time in combating the disease with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the woman's remedy for woman's ills.

Mrs. Samuel Frake, of Prospect Plains, N. J., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

I cannot thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I first wrote to you I had suffered for years with what the doctor called kidney trouble and congestion of the womb. My back ached dreadfully all the time, and I suffered so with that bearing-down feeling I could hardly walk across the room. I did not get any better, so decided to stop doctoring with my physician and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am thankful to say it has entirely cured me. I do all my own work, have no more backache and all the bad symptoms have disappeared.

I cannot praise your medicine enough, and would advise all women suffering with kidney trouble to try it.

Mrs. J. W. Lang, of 626 Third Avenue, New York, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

I have been a great sufferer with kidney trouble. My back ached all the time and I was discouraged. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure kidney disease, and I began to take it; and it has cured me when everything else had failed. I have recommended it to lots of people and they all praise it very highly.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from kidney trouble, or any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of the great volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than likely she has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Trial of a Balloon.

The huge Lebaudy dirigible balloon, constructed under the patronage of the French war office, made its first successful ascent at Toul yesterday with some chief engineers and a party of officers who made an extensive reconnaissance of the military defenses from Toul to Nancy, near the German frontier.

The balloon ascended about 655 yards, passing over Fort Vaendreville and the defensive works in the Haye forest. On reaching the barracks at Blanden the balloon turned back and went directly to Toul, where it decended in the midst of a crowd of enthusiastic engineer officers and soldiers.

The distance covered was about 30 miles at a rate of 28 miles per hour. The officers made inspections of the forts and took photographs of them, thus establishing the merits of dirigible balloons for war purposes.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 13, 1905.

THE DEMOCRATIC primary election in this city yesterday was the most spirited of any that has been held since the adoption of the new constitution, a larger vote having been polled and as much interest manifested as was ever known on similar occasions in this city's history. The campaign of over three weeks has run its course and the result of the election is known. The entire city had been canvassed by Messrs. N. S. Greenaway and Charles Bendheim, candidates for the nomination for Clerk of the Corporation and Circuit Courts, as well as by their many friends and supporters and the first-named has been selected as the democratic candidate by but 52 majority. His competitor has nothing to be ashamed of, as he made a good run and proved himself to be a formidable candidate. Both gentlemen possess every requisite for the position of clerk. But there could be but one of the two selected, and a majority of the democrats have settled upon Mr. Greenaway; this is, of course, an end to all arguments, and those in the minority, like all good democrats, will at the general election next month cast their ballots for the nominee of their party. During the campaign there have been utterances by the supporters of both candidates which were probably slips of the tongue and which tended but little toward advancing the interests of either aspirant; but there are common incidents in most political struggles, for which the candidates should not be held responsible. They generally emanated from persons of explosive natures who have never been able to rise superior to private variances and who show no disposition to allow old wounds to heal. The political history of Alexandria during the past third of a century contains many interesting chapters concerning the waxing and waning of parties and different movements in the body politic. Some have left ugly scars. With but one or two exceptions the struggles have been in the democratic camp during primary elections. While the convalescence of some disappointed individuals has been [illegible] standpoint and stood as a unit against republican aggression. There is every reason to believe that the result of yesterday's primary will result likewise, while the triumphant wing of the party will exhibit equally good-sense in refraining from any excessive display of exultation over the minority, as, after all, the former have won only by a small majority.

THE Merchants' Association of New York, through its board of directors, yesterday adopted resolutions calling upon the District Attorney of New York county to ascertain whether an indictment cannot be found against the officers of life insurance companies who have contributed the funds of the companies to political campaign committees. The association also asks that civil action be instituted by the State attorney general looking to the restitution of the money so contributed. There is no good reason why both these requests should not be granted. The money contributed did not belong to the contributors and the filched money should be returned to the companies and those who misappropriated it should be punished.

THE American Bankers' Association at their meeting in Washington yesterday went out of their way to adopt a resolution introduced by Mr. R. J. Lowry, of Atlanta, Ga., embodying the ship subsidy principle, in spite of the protest of Mr. J. G. Fletcher, of Little Rock, Ark., who wisely declared that a subsidy was a governmental handicap and un-American in principle. The late Gen. W. H. Payne, in a conversation with the writer of this paragraph, once said that the northern men with their money who had gone to Atlanta had yankeeized the whole State of Georgia. The action of Mr. Lowry shows the truth of Gen. Payne's observation.

THAT "the white man is monstrous unsartin" was demonstrated at yesterday's primary. If what "everybody" said three weeks ago had come true, Mr. Greenaway would have been elected by a large majority, but instead of this Mr. Bendheim, who was appointed clerk by Judge Barley, was defeated by but 52 majority and his friends claim that had the election been deferred for a few days longer he would have won out, as only 27 men would have been required to change their minds to have brought about this result.

WM. M. IVINS, former City Chamberlin under Mayors Grace and Hewitt, and the man who acted as counsel to the Fassett investigating committee, held about 15 years ago, yesterday afternoon was offered and accepted the nomination for Mayor of New York on the republican ticket. On election day he will find out that he is not in the race with Mayor McClellan.

THE advice used to be "Go West, young man," but now it seems to be reversed. Out in Kansas a public man is quoted as saying, "The question is: Shall a young man remain in the West and make an honest struggle, or go East and grow up with the trusts?"

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 13.

Government officials are coming to realize more and more the part which our imported products, particularly wheat, play in the world's politics. It creates no surprise that the crop reporter of the Department of Agriculture and the daily consular and trade reports of the Department of Commerce and Labor issued today should have for their leading subjects, articles on flour and political questions arising therefrom. Special Agent Burrill sends a report from Shanghai, China, dated September 1, stating that Australia, thinking to take advantage of the boycott on American goods, is endeavoring to introduce her flour into China. He says that the outlook for the continued control by the United States of the flour market of northern China is not especially bright, while the promised venture of the Australians into this field of commercial activity seems predestined to failure. He bases this conclusion on the presumption that now Manchuria is to be opened up that the major portion of the wheat for Chinese consumption will be grown in that country. The letter printed in the Crop Reporter from London is not signed, evidently being sent, however, by a government official. The conclusion of an investigation in the British Isles is this, that while in no sense the exclusive article of food that rice is in some oriental countries, yet wheat is above all other products preeminently the basic item of the English food supply. "Circumstances peculiar to the British Isles," continues the report," make this a fact of great political as well as economic and commercial importance; the culture of wheat in the United Kingdom has decreased by more than half with in the past thirty years; consumption, meanwhile has been steadily inceasing, and the situation now is that the English people, an insular nation, produce less than one-fifth of the grain that constitutes their chief article of food, and hence are dependent for over four-fifths of their supply upon over-sea transportation." The problem of obtaining this premier foodstuff without famine prices has not been attended with difficulties, it is pointed out, for many years. The question is asked what the outcome would be if England would become involved with a great naval power.

The peace treaty between Russia and Japan which was concluded at Portsmouth, N. H., will be formally ratified tomorrow. This will put an end to the existing armistice between the two recently hostile armies in Manchuria and will definitely establish a lasting peace. The news that tomorrow had been decided upon as the day upon which the Czar and the Mikado will sign and [illegible] the treaty was brought to the [illegible] partment this morning by [illegible], the Russian Ambassador, who was also one of the Russian peace plenipotentiaries at Portsmouth. It is intended to have the ratifications take place in Tokio and St. Petersburg as nearly simultaneously as possible taking into consideration the difference in time between the two capitals. Later there will be a more formal exchange of the written and signed documents in this city at the White House in the presence of President Roosevelt.

The convention will be signed either late this afternoon or tomorrow.

Husbands Rebel.

Thoroughly disgusted by the universal giving up of their wives to social functions, 200 citizens of Williamsport, Warren county, Ind., have entered vigorous protests against the practice, and have demanded in no uncertain terms that there must be more consecration to home duties and less devotion to clubs.

This condition was brought about by an unusal number of pink teas, progressive euchre parties, receptions and debut parties, all of which have told heavily upon the purses of the heads of the families. Added to this were late dinners at home, late hours at night, and, as a consequence, languid movements when about the household duties the next day.

So general was the practice of the ladies, and so often did the husbands find their business engagements interferred with, that they began to talk over the matter among their friends, and one after another came into the circle of confidants, till practically all the husbands in the town were on the complaining list.

The husbands met Wednesday afternoon, had a pink tea of their own, and then marched in a body to the various places where their wives were being entertained and burlesqued their social functions. The husbands were followed by a large crowd of boys and single men, and the affair was made as grotesque as possible.

They boarded a train for Corning, N. Y., but E. K. Garman, stepfather of the girl, learned of the runaway and telegraphed to Corning, directing their arrest upon arrival. Chief Ryan went to Corning and got the girl. Kissell will be prosecuted for abduction.

The bullet pierced his heart, and his death resulted instantly. He was a brakeman on the Pennsylvania Railroad and received $75 a month. Although he attended closely to his duties, he was fond of pleasure and company. He is said to have been pushed by some of his friends to whom he owed money and had recently been drinking heavily.

Arrest of Evangelist.

James C. Grimes, an evangelist, who was attending the meeting of Rechabites as a delegate from Baltimore, was arrested yesterday during the convention's session in Washington. It is alleged that Grimes, who is now sixty-one years old, married Martha Grimes, who is only a few years his junior, in Baltimore in 1867, having a wife living at the time, and that he deserted her about a year ago, and returned to his first wife, who was conducting a boarding-house in Baltimore.

The second wife, she says, during the many years she lived with Grimes, believed she was his legal wife, as she had a marriage certificate. Since his alleged abandonment of her she has been living in southeast Washington, where she has been cared for by friends and members of the Wilson Memorial Church, of which she is a member.

When it was learned that Grimes was in Washington attending the Rechabite meeting a warrant was sworn out for his arrest by Martha Grimes. Grimes was in the act of casting his ballot at the election being held by the Rechabites in their hall when Detective Muller tapped him on the shoulder and requested him to get his hat and come out into the hallway. Grimes obeyed the summons, not suspecting the cause, and almost fainted from surprise when told of the charge against him and that he was under arrest.

Millionaire Aids Hoch.

A casual glance at a newspaper by an entire stranger who happened to be spending a day in Cleveland, Ohio, it has just been discovered, is what intervened to save Johaan Hoch, alleged murderer and bigamist, from death at a time when his execution seemed certain and resulted in the postponement of the sentence until a thorough inquiry has been made by the Supreme Court of the case.

James H. McNicholas, a millionaire miner, with headquarters at Portland, Oreg., unsolicited, tendered the check which made possible the stay of execution. While at Cleveland en route East last July he read the story of Hoch's trial and the critical situation he was in. McNicholas immediately wired Representative Comerford, at Springfield, that the sum necessary to guarantee Hoch another trial was forthcoming on demand, and later wired the amount, $500, to Comerford. Because of his dislike for notoriety, McNicholas' name has not been made public before as Hoch's benefactor.

On Monday next the reprieve granted to secure a hearing of Hoch's case in the Supreme Court will have served its purpose. On that occasion his case will be argued and the decision that means life or death to Hoch will be rendered.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Killed His Mother-in-law.

Believing Mrs. Mary E. Wright, his mother-in-law, was responsible for trouble between himself and his wife, leading to their separation several months ago, Thomas A. McCraw, aged forty-five, an upholsterer and harness maker, of Wilmington, N. C., his mind inflamed by liquor, yesterday went to the family home and shot her to death on the threshold of her kitchen. The woman fell back in the arms of her daughter, Mrs. McCraw, and died half an hour later, pleading that for the sake of his three little children, her son-in-law be not hanged. McCraw was arrested by a policeman a few minutes later, standing where he had fired the shot, the pistol, purchased the dry before, in his hands. In a note containing sensational charges against Christian Science, it is clearly indicated that the man not only intended to kill Mrs. Wright, but his wife and himself also. As McCraw was being taken to the police station a son of the dead woman had to be restrained from shooting McCraw in the police patrol wagon. McCraw in the note referred to alleged that his mother-in-law, influenced by her faith, exercised an undue control over his wife, who was not a member of the same denomination.

Germany in Ferment.

The storm raised by the Paris Matin still fills columns of the London newspapers. Some correspondents at Paris and Berlin represent the situation as serious, and whatever the attitude of the governments may be, it is clear that popular feeling is greatly excited. German public rage centers on Great Britain's alleged offer to invade the fatherland. Nothing, says the Chronicle's Berlin correspondent, will satisfy public opinion except Great Britain's authoritative denial. The situation, which is serious enough, will be still more serious if the Matin's statements are not disavowed. The Berlin correspondent of the Standard represents the German government as demanding a denial either from Great Britain or France. The Telegraph's Paris correspondent says it is practically impossible to calculate the ravage the storm may produce; tremendous interests are at stake. Any amount of mischief has been created already. It is noteworthy that M. Delcasse's cryptic, if dignified, statements have not had a calming effect.

Today's Telegraphic News

Offered Diplomatic Support.

Manchester, Eng., Oct. 13.—The Dispatch says it is informed from a high diplomatic source that there is no truth in the much discussed article which appeared recently in the Paris Matin, to the effect that previous to former Minister Delcasse's retirement from the French Cabinet he had been promised military and naval support by Great Britain in the event that the dispute between France and Germany over the Moroccan question led to war. The Dispatch declares that when the Moroccan crisis was at an acute stage, Lord Lansdowne, the British Foreign Secretary, informed Prince von Buelow that France had England's diplomatic support in the controversy. Germany then inquired further whether the support would become more than diplomatic in certain eventualities. England replied that she would not go beyond giviug France her diplomatic support. A similar assurance has been repeated to Germany within the last week, and Germany is entirely satisfied with the statement made.

Paris, Oct. 13.—A council of ministers was called suddenly at the Elysee Palace today to discuss the international sensation which has been created by the newspaper stories regarding the circumstances of the resignation of M. Delcasse, as Foreign Minister, and the revelations made of England's project to invade Germany in support of Delcasse's policy, in case war between France and Germany resulted over the Moroccan clash. While the official note which is usually issued after meetings of the cabinet does not mention this subject as having been discussed, an authorized denial of the reports which have been published was made. Later, an official denial of the Delcasse stories was issued.

Trouble Becoming Acute.

Paris, Oct., 13.—Eor the first time since the trouble with Venezuela arose the situation is regarded as growing acute. President Castro's persistence in refusing to recognize the representative of France at Caracas has exhausted the patience of the French government, which still insists that apologies shall be offered to M. Taigny, while the French cable company refuses to deal directly with Castro. The feeling is predominent in official circles that the moment has come for action against Venezuela with or without the cooperation of the United States. The fact that the United States did not interfere in the Anglo-German demonstration against Venezuela and the attitude recently assumed by that Government toward M. Juessearand, the French Ambassador to the United States, are regarded as practical guarantees that France is free to act without fear of becoming involved in complications with the American government.

Paris, Oct. 13.—The cruizer Chasseloup Laubat, which was sent to Lorient recently to disarm, has been ordered by telegraph to remain in the service awaiting further orders. The fact that such orders have been sent to the warship is taken to indicate that a compaign against Venezuela is projected as the Chasselcup Laadat is one af the swiftest warships in the French navy, and would probably be selected for such a mission.

The Late Prince Troubetskoy.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 13.—The sudden death last night of Prince Sergius Troubetskoy from apoplexy has filled the people with consternation. Prince Troubetskoy arrived in St. Petersburg yesterday afternoon and had a conference with Minister of Education Gasloff at four o'clock. He attended another conference at 7 o'clock and suddenly fainted about 9 o'clock. He was hurried to a hospital where he died at midnight. Nervous exhaustion is believed to have brought on the attack as Prince Troubetskoy was of impressionable temperament, and had grieved deeply over the recent disorders which have occurred throughout Russia and the trials of the nation. The death of the prince is regarded by many people as a calamity, as he was one of the leading liberals spirits in the country and was loved for the active part he had taken in reform movement. He was president of the Zemstvo Congress of the government of Moscow and he was a delegate who waited on the Czar to present the petition of the All Zemstvo Congress. He was elected rector of the Moscow University and the appointment apparently had given general satisfaction.

The New York Campaign.

New York, Oct. 13.—Added interest to what promised to be a dull mayoralty campaign has been given by the entrance of William R. Hearst as a candidate on the municipal ownership platform, and the turning down by the democrats of Wm. Travers Jerome, for renomination for District Attorney. The act of Tammany Hall last night in nominating James W. Osborne for District Attorney has made Jerome more of an independent candidate than ever and New York is wondering today if the republican party will hitch its wagon to his star to gain much of Jerome's independent strength. Not a few are hoping that the republican managers will turn Jerome down, in order to ascertain just what strength it is possible for an absolute independent candidate to show in the face of the opposition of the two party leaders. District Attorney Jerome has not asked the support of any party or faction and his candidacy is so far entirely independent. His personality and record is his only plank.

Accepted Agreement.

Copenhagen, Oct. 13.—Advices from Stockholm state that the second chamber of the Danish Riksdag has unanimously accepted the Karlstadt agreement for the dissolution of the union between Norway and Sweden. A definite result was thus reached in the negotiations looking to dissolution.

Stockholm, Sweden, Oct. 13.—Both houses of the Riksdag today ratified the agreement by the commissioners of Norway and Sweden at Karlstadt naming the terms upon which the union between the two nations will be dissolved. The second chamber passed upon the agreement first, ratifying it unanimously. Later the agreement was accepted by the first chamber.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and kept them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." E. S. Leadbeater and Sons, druggist guarantee them at 50c.

The Bankers.

Washington, Oct. 13.—The convention of the American Bankers' Association came to a close today. Congressional currency legislation, the bankers say, is bound to meet with obstacles in the way of ignorance among the people and fear that the financial interests are trying to do everybody. The present serious need of reform, they hope, will counteract this prejudice and make a remedy possible. Mrs. L. A. Batcheller, vice president of the Fingal National Bank, of Fingal, N. D., is the only woman bank representative at the convention. Her husband is busy handling the Dakota wheat crop, and Mrs. Batcheller is representing her bank in his place. She was elected today vice president of the association for North Dakota.

The principal address before the American Bankers' Association today was by Hon. Harvey Goulder, of Cleveland, O., his subject being "Our Commerce." He spoke in advocacy of legislation that would rehabilitate the American merchant marine.

Government insurance of National Bank deposits was the novel suggestion made this morning by Mr. C. F. Allis, of the Second National Bank of Erie, Pa. His idea was that an annual contribution by each national bank to a fund to be preserved by the Comptroller of the Currency for safeguarding the depositors interests would raise public confidence. No action was taken.

Logan C. Murray, president of the American National Bank of Louisville, Ky. referred to newspaper reports that Carl Becker, the "king of forgers" had, upon his release recently from San Quentin prison, in California, been offered and had accepted an annual income of $12,000 a year to refrain from plying his trade as a penman. The American bankers Association, Mr. Murray said, never compounds a felony, and will treat with no criminal. Becker and no other will be offered immunity or hired by the association not to commit crime. The report of the nominating committee was unanimously adopted and the following officers declared elected: John L. Hamilton, of Hoopestown, Illinois, president; G. S. Whitson, of New York, first vice-president, Col. James P. Branch of New York City, secretary, and Ralph Van Vichten, treasurer.

The retiring president was presented with a silver punch bowl. James P. Branch was also presented with punch bowl as a token of regard by the Association for his ten year service as secretary. Shortly after noon, the convention adjourned sine die.

The Olney Murder.

Middletown, N. Y., Oct. 13.—The net is being drawn in around the murderers of Willis C. and Fred R. Olney and little Alice Ingerick and all the people interested in the tragedy are rapidly being eliminated until those directly implicated are begining to squirm and some startling developments are momentarily expected. John Conkling, aged 52, his son Arthur, aged 20, illiterate peddlers, and Martin Sigler, a well known farmer, who were taken into custody late last night, are being retained as witnesses and their statements have entirely cleared up the mystery of the men with the gray horse and the light box wagon, which had been most vexing to the authorities. Bert Sigler, a son of Martin Sigler, was this morning brought to police headquarters and his statement is being taken. There is again much excitement in this city today, as the feeling that the net is being drawn in has become general, and should anyone be arrested charged with the murder it may go hard with him if he falls into the hands of the crowd. Mrs. Ingerick still lies in a semi-conscious condition, and it is believed now that she does not know who struck her down.

Directors Elected.

New York, Oct. 13.—The trustees of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, at a meeting held today at the Hotel Buckingham, elected John B. Kernan, of Utica, N. Y. and Wm. Redfields, of Brooklyn, to fill the vacancies on the board of directors of the society. Mr. Kernan is a son of former United States Senator Francis D. Kernan, is a member of the State railroad commission of New York, and is a prominent lawyer of Utica. William Redfields is a prominent man of Brooklyn. He is at the head of J. S. Williams & Co's drop forging plant. In addition to electing the two new directors, the trustees prepared a circular which will be sent out to all policy holders of the Equitable, asking them to express their opinion as to the selection of men from their own number to be voted for by the trustees for directors at the annual meeting on the first Wednesday of December, when the places of directors whose terms expire this year will be filled.

Narrow Escape.

Mineolo, L. I., Oct 13.—What is considered a miraculous escape from death occurred today on the Jericho road, over which the contestants in the race for the Vanderbilt cup will send their automobiles tomorrow. Driver Lytle, in his 90 horse power Pope-Toledo, was going at a high rate of speed and was approaching the Mineola crossing road when he sighted a freight train about half a mile away. Lytle miscalculated the speed of the train, thought the way would be clear by the time he reached the track and came on at unabated speed. He swerved in time to save a collision, but the train shaved the back of his motor car.

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt and his automobile driver, Sartori, had a narrow escape from serious injury, while taking a final spin in the ninety horse power Fiat on the Guines Road. Mr. Vanderbilt was thrown several feet, but fortunately fell into some soft loam.

Haas and Peckham Arraigned

New York, Oct. 13.—Moses Haas and Frederick A. Peckham, who are under indictment by the federal grand jury of Washington, D. C., together with Edwin S. Holmes, former Assistant Statisticion of the Agricultural Department, on the charge of defrauding the government in connection with the "cotton leak scandal," were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Ridgeway today. The government was represented by United States District Attorney Burnett, his assistant, Clarence D. Houghton, and Morgan H. Beach, Special Assistant Attorney-General. The identity of the defendants was then admitted, and counsel on both sides agreed to an oral argument of the question of the validity of the indictment and the jurisdiction of the court at 10 o'clock on Saturday, October 21. The defendents were held in $10,000 bail each.

To Sue Town.

Fairmont, W. Va., Oct. 13.—Steps are being taken by government and railroad officials to bring action against the town of Oakland, Md., for delaying a Baltimore & Ohio passenger train there last night. Because he alleges that the train exceeded the speed limit, a policeman climbed on the cab of the engine and, pointing a gun at the engineer, compelled him to submit to arrest. He was taken before a Justice of the Peace, and the train was detained over an hour. The train carried United States mail, and the government, it is reported here, will assist in bringing the town to time. The engineer has already instituted suit for damages.

The Taggart Divorce Case.

Wooster, Ohio, Oct. 13.—Judge D. B. Eason of the county court has his decision in the Taggart divorce prepared. It will be made public at 3:30 this afternoon, when court convenes specially for the purpose of rendering the decision. The lawyers of the captain and Mrs. Taggart and the parties to the suit will be present. A prominent lawyer here who has closely watched the case, says he believe the decision will be a bitter disappointment to Taggart. He says Mrs Taggart is to get the decree of divorce. He believes the younger child will be placed in the custody of his mother. Taggart, he says, will get the elder boy.

Customs Measure.

Vienna, Oct. 13.—It is reported that Premier Fejervary has elaborated a measure which provides for the separation of the customs dues of Austria and Hungary. He is now trying to induce King Francis Joseph to sanction the project. According to Baron Fejervary's plan, the customs barrier which he proposes will be erected in 1908. Hungary will then levy the tax on articles imported for consumption. When the commercial treaties with foreign countries expire in 1915 the Austro-Hungarian customs union will definitely end.

New Plea for Uplifting Negro.

Washington, Oct. 13.—A government expert will be sent to Alexandria, Va., to start an experiment station where negroes may be taught a thorough knowledge of the soil. Secretary Wilson decided on this after a conference with William Polk, a prominent planter.

Chief of Police Murdered.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 13.—Colonel Von Eitemann, chief of police at Krasnoyarsk, has been murdered. Col. Von Eitemann was returning from the theatre with his family, when he was attacked. The assassin fired six shots several of which took effect. Krasnoyarsk, where the assassination took place, is a town in eastern Siberia.

Case Dismissed.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 13.—The suit of Miss Mae Wood against Senator Platt for $45,000 as far as the garnishment of the United States Express Company's property here is concerned, was dismissed by Judge Day today. The court ruled the property does not belong to Platt merely because he is the president of the concern.

Glut of Sugar at New York.

New York, Oct. 13.—Ship loads of sugar from Java are arriving so fast that the sugar refineries are glutted. Thus far this month 10 ships have arrived, bringing 116,634,550 pounds of sugar from Java, or over 5,000,000 pounds more than during the whole of September.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 13.—The trading during the first hour reflected more than anything else the fading away of the effect of the Vanderlip warning. There were few stocks for sale around prevailing quotations, the same condition that prevailed yesterday afternoon, but on moderate advances some selling orders appeared.

Nomination of Mr. Greenaway.

The primary election yesterday resulted in the nomination of Mr. N. S. Greenaway as the democratic candidate for Clerk of the Corporation and Circuit Courts of this city. The nomination is equivalent to election. As was intimated in the Gazette yesterday, the two candidates—Mr. Greenaway and Mr. Charles Bendheim—ran neck and neck, and the first-named won by a nose only. The interest was unparalleled in the political history of this city, and the largest vote since the adoption of the new constitution was cast. Mr. Greenaway had but 52 majority; it therefore required the change of but 27 votes to have elected Mr. Bendheim.

The vote by wards was as follows: First ward, Greenaway, 183; Bendheim, 154; Second ward, Greenaway, 170; Bendheim, 214; Third ward, Greenaway, 162; Bendheim, 115; Fourth ward, Greenaway, 145; Bendheim, 125.

The vote in the city was as follows:

Greenaway	183	170	162	145	660
Bendheim	154	214	115	125	608
Thrown out	3	.....	5	1	9

The total vote cast was 1,277.

The polls were closed at 6 o'clock and almost before the stars in the sky were visible the result had been announced. There was no unseemly exultation upon the part of the successful wing of the democratic party, nor did those who had centred upon Mr. Bendheim exhibit any unnecessary piqué because the services of their candidates had been declined.

Shortly after the result had become known several of Mr. Greenaway's supporters telephoned to Washington for the naval gun factory band, and that organization arrived here on the electric railway early in the night. A procession was formed and after the successful candidate had been serenaded at his home on north Columbus street the principal streets were paraded and the victory celebrated with music, red fire and cheers. But, so far as could be seen, there was no undue exuberation nor attempts to irritate those who had supported the unsuccessful candidate.

In the contest for magistrate in the Second ward Mr. William A. Moore, sr., defeated Mr. Frank Mason by a vote of 226 to 152, and Mr. Harvey Robinson was nominated for constable without opposition.

Trial Trip.

The new ferry steamer Woodbury, which the Harlan and Hollingsworth Corporation of Wilmington, Del., is building for the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company for use on the ferry route between this city and Washington, had a dock trial of her boiler and engines Tuesday last, and it is stated the trial was satisfactory in every particular. The new steamer will be ready for her speed trials next week, and on October 28 will be turned over by the builders to her owners. The steamer will at once leave Wilmington, and will begin service on the ferry route November 1. This date for the begining of the new ferry route has been definitely fixed by Manager Callahan. There will be but one steamer in service for the present, and she is to make hourly trips from each end of the route. According to the schedule arranged, the steamer will leave Alexandria on the hour from 6 a. m. until 6 p. m., and from Washington she will leave on the half hour from 6:30 a. m. until 6: 30 p: m. No night trips will be made as the schedule is now arranged. The steamer is expected to make the run between the cities in twenty minutes, allowing ten minutes at each end to unload and load passengers and teams. The rate of fare adopted will be the same as that of the former ferry company, ten cents one way, or fifteen cents for the round trip, with a liberal discount for commutation tickets. A rate for wagons and freight satisfactory to the Alexandria merchants has, it is stated, been arranged.

Knights Have a Field Day.

The various commanderies of the Knights Templar of the District of Columbia held their first annual field day at the country home of Mr. John R. McLean, on Tenleytown road, yesterday. The programme consisted of an inspection, competitive drills, a review and dress parade. In addition to the members of the local commanderies who were present, the exercises were witnessed by many notables in Masonic affairs throughout the country. The delegates to the Scottish Rite convention, which will be held in Washington, beginning Monday together with prominent visiting members of the order who are attending the bankers' convention, watched the drills. A number of Sir Knights of this city were present.

Pool Room Cases.

Arthur Wall, president of the Maryland Telegraph Company, under the charter of which, it is claimed, the Kenilworth, poolroom, Prince George's county, Md., was conducted last spring and early summer, and Percy T. Pumphrey, the owner of the building in which the poolroom was located, appeared in the Circuit Court at Upper Marlboro, yesterday, on bench warrants issued as the result of five indictments filed by the grand jury against Wall for making books on horse races at the Kenilworth pool rooms, and one indictment against Pumphrey, who is charged with renting the building for selling pools. The cases were set for trial on Wednesday next.

Suspicious Characters.

The only cases before the Police Court this morning were those of Newport Walker and William McCoy, both colored, who were arrested by Lieutenant Smith and Officer Beach as supicious characters. McCoy, it is alleged, has recently served a term in the penitentiary for robbing a man in another city. They were dismissed with the understanding that they were to leave the city, never to return.

Opera House.

The J. L. Tempest Dramatic Company presented "The Lighthouse Tragedy" at the Opera House last night to a good-sized audience, which heartily enjoyed the play. The drama contained many thrilling climaxes and was interesting throughout. The specialties were excellent. Tonight the company will produce the well-known drama, "East Lynne," which they were requested to play by a large number of people. This company presented the play here last year in a masterly style and an excellent performance is expected tonight. A matinee will be given tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the attraction being "The Batchelor's Twins," a farce comedy. A beautiful gold watch and chain will be given to the one holding the lucky number. The attraction tomorrow night will be the melodrama, "A Vagabond's Wife."

Bankers' Excursion.

Over 500 members of the visiting bankers and their relatives and friends were the guests of the Washington bankers on the steamer Norfolk, of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, yesterday, and made a trip from Washington on the Potomac river as far as Marshall Hall. The Norfolk was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and a band of music and luncheon were features of the trip. The boat left the Washington wharf at 2.30 with flags flying and music playing, steamed by this city and proceeded to a point a short distance below Marshall Hall, and returned to Washington arriving about 4.30.

Charged with Assault.

Officer Beach arrested a young man named Henry Smith this morning on complaint of a man named Nowland, who charged Smith, while in charge of a team, with attempting to run over him. The plaintiff also said that when he remonstrated with Smith, the latter produced a knife and threatened to use the same. Smith was taken to the station-house and released on $10 collateral for his appearance tomorrow morning. He denies the charges alleged against him.

Death of Mrs. Jeffers.

Mrs. Elona Jeffers, widow of Stephen A. Jeffers and mother of Rev. J. A. Jeffers, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church in this city, died at her home in Camden, N. J., on Wednesday, aged 67 years. Her funeral will take place from her late home tomorrow evening. Mr. Jeffers has the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends in this city in his sad bereavement.

Charged With Theft.

Officers Henderson and Mayhugh this morning arrested two colored men named Dan Craig and Eugene Parker charged with entering the house of Eli Dove, in the northwestern section of the city and stealing a clock. They will be arraigned in the Police Court tomorrow morning.

Mr. James W. Roberts, of Fairfax county, was elected president.

Giants Win Their Second Game.

Baseball frappe, for overcoat baseball and likewise baseball lingering in the lap of football, was played in Philadelphia yesterday in the third game of the world's championship series, and the Philadelphia American League champions were frozen out by the New York National League champions. Not only were the Phillies frozen out, but they were shut out by the New Yorks, outplayed in the fundamentals and the fine points of the game, and humbled by the top-heavy score of 9 to 0. Christy Mathewson, the pitching king, again twirled New York to victory. Thus far, with Mathewson pitching, the Athletics and the home plate are strangers. The Phillies did not come as near to that goal yesterday as they did Monday. They managed to make two of their four hits in one inning, but they could not forward a base runner beyond second base. Second base was the hollow zenith of their endeavors.

Sensational Suicide.

With a hundred or more persons, 20 of whom were women, looking on, a man leaped from the platform on the downtown side of the "L" station at Third avenue and Ninth street, New York, yesterday afternoon, and was ground to death beneath the wheels of a south-bound local train. The women screamed with horror and several of them fainted. The man, who is thought to be John Flynn, living in the Bronx, came hurriedly up the steps leading to the station as the south-bound train drew up toward the station, and when the front car was with in 20 feet of him deliberately threw himbimself across the rails. The motorman was unable to stop the train. He was arrested.

Increasing Demand.

It is most gratifying to note the steadily increasing demand for Fairfax farms and village property. Buyers are coming this way every day, attracted by the many advantages of this section—advantages which cannot be duplicated elsewhere. For a comparatively small amount of money a good home can be secured, within easy reach of splendid markets and convenient to railroad transportation. The climate, the water, the quality of the soil, the schools, churches and all modern accessories to delightful existence combine to make this an ideal place for the home-seeker.—[Fairfax Herald.

And to Mrs. Carter, who gave us the benefit of her true executive ability, as well as musical genius, and labored on so nobly (in a truly philanthropic spirit) we tender our unbounded thanks. Also we heartily thank Miss Lelia Steiner, who proved so valuable an assistant in many ways and executed so admirably the various duties assigned to her as well as delighted all who heard her music.

A Street Scene, Bombay.

A man clad only in a yellow scarf and turban opens a mouth stained with the vivid vermilion of betel juice to show that the mango seed just swallowed has already become a small tree with green leaves pushing toward the light. A woman appears next upon the scene, bringing a crying baby in a closed hamper of bamboo. A dozen swords are instantly thrust through the interstices amid the ear piercing yells of the supposed victim, but as soon as the formidable blades are withdrawn the nine lived infant tumbles out of the basket and salaams to the assembled audience, holding out her tiny brown hand for the well deserved backsheesh.

As the fun waxes fast and furious sundry quarrels and recriminations between the rival magicians attract the intervention of the native police, who, "dressed in a little brief authority," symbolized by red turban and blue tunic, soon disperse the performers, bag and baggage, hastening the enforced departure with unlimited kicks and thumps, submissively received.

Peter the Great and Lawyers.

In Russia during the reign of Peter the Great private litigants might have their suits prosecuted free of cost by lawyers paid by the state. The emperor, discovering that his subjects were being imposed upon by their legal agents, who contrived to delay trials until they had sucked their clients dry, enacted that sufficient solicitors and attorneys should be employed at handsome yearly salaries to officiate for the public in every matter of law. He ordered further that these men should insert in a register written up daily the dates of applications to them and should proceed with the suits in the order in which they were received without respect of persons. If they failed to do so, if they accepted any bribe or fee or if they were dilatory these lawyers were to be knouted and sent to Siberia.

The Surgeon's Nightmare.

Two patients who called in company upon a noted surgeon found him bemoaning a twinge of pain in his right forefinger. The callers smiled.

"Great Scott, doctor," exclaimed one, "you don't mean to say that a pain in the finger bothers a man so used to scenes of suffering as yourself!"

"It certainly does," the surgeon answered, with a worried look. "How do I know that it isn't the first symptom of blood poisoning? That is the nightmare of the surgeon. No matter how careful he may be, he is liable to contract poisoning in operating, and that kind of poisoning is of the most virulent type. Any time a surgeon is complaining about a pain in the hand sympathize with him, for he is doing some hard guessing."—Philadelphia Record.

A Book and a War.

Copyright questions are grave enough nowadays, but they no longer threaten to end in war, as in the case of St. Columba, the Irishman who settled in Iona converted north Britain and is commemorated on June 9. He had a passion for fine manuscripts and copies of them and among others copied a certain Latin psalter belonging to an Irish abbot whereupon King Diarmaid condemned Columba at Tara ruling that "to every book belongs its copy, as to every cow its calf." Columba appealed against the verdict in the practical form of inciting his kinsmen to revolt, and they defeated Diarmaid in the battle of the Psalter. The book is claimed to be the one which in a silver cover was carried into battle by the O'Donnells during more than a thousand years and may be seen at the Royal Irish academy today.—London Chronicle.

Old Sevres.

Old Sevres porcelain holds its own among those who are wealthy enough to buy it, because, within definite limits, it is perfect. The united skill of the best French chemists, potters, artists and sculptors of the time went to its making; the sordid necessity of earning a profit did not trouble the director of Sevres, for an easy going monarch was always ready to make good the yearly loss.

Technical perfection—no less—was aimed at, and it was attained. Frenchmen of that day grumbled at the waste of public money on the Pompadour's whim, but Louis took no heed. Sevres was to produce the finest porcelain at any cost, for the glory of France and her Bourbon kings.—London Outlook.

Somber Christianity.

The Auld Licht kirk when Dr. Chalmers visited it was a terribly bare little building. The elders were a grim set. They kept their bonnets on their heads till the minister entered, and they had each a large stick in hand, which they used for "chappin" their noses through all the service. The minister wore no gown or bands. He gave a very long sermon, full of sound divinity, but without the smallest practical application and without a vestige of feeling. At length Dr. Chalmers got out, the dismal worship being ended, and his word was, "If these people ever get to heaven, they will live on the north side of it."

Indian Magic.

A traveler tells a story of Indian magic. The juggler was a Malay, who stroked with his fingers the blade of a long knife or creese. The observer saw water fall drop by drop from the blade, which became flaccid, like a strip of india rubber. Thrown on the ground, it bounced about, but was a knife blade again when lifted by the juggler. An examination showed that there was no water on the mat on which the observer saw the drops falling.

A Prayer Before Work.

The day returns and brings us the petty round of irritating concerns and duties. Help us to play the man; help us to perform them with laughter and kind faces; let cheerfulness abound with industry; give us to go blithely on our way all this day; bring us to our resting beds weary and content and undishonored, and grant us in the end the gift of sleep. Amen!—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Would Like to Be There.

A Maine French Canadian mill operative in Biddeford asked his overseer for a few days leave of absence. Being short of help, the overseer asked him if it was anything very particular that he wanted to stay out for, and he replied, "Yaasir; I'm goin' to git marrit, un I'd lak be there; that all."

An Art Critic.

"What do you think of our new oil painting?" asked Mrs. Newrich.

"Well," answered Mr. Newrich, "it seems good enough from the front, but if you turn it round and look at the other side I must say the material seems kind o' cheap."

A Clever Hint.

Mrs. A.—There are times when I wish I were a man. Mr. A.—For instance? Mrs. A.—When I pass a milliner's window and think how happy I could make my wife by giving her a new bonnet.

Too Assiduous.

Her—My only objection to Mrs. Pryor is that she's a business woman. Him—Indeed! What business is she engaged in? Her—Everybody's.—Chicago News.

A Pleasure To All.

No Pill is as pleasant and positive as De Witt's Little Early Risers. These Famous Little Pills are so mild and effective that children, delicate ladies and weak people enjoy their cleansing effect, while strong people say they are the best liver pills sold. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Could Not Be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Frightful Suffering Relieved

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, drugstore, guaranteed.

Faith Not Necessary.

You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is curing hunereds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if medicine can cure you, whether you have faith in it or not. Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co. 401 King street.

Three Bank Bills.

General Samuel Veazie of Bangor built the first railroad in Maine and also founded the Veazie National bank of Bangor. He had occasion to visit Boston once and made the trip by the circuitous means of transportation used in those early days, by stage, railroad and steamboat. He arrived in Boston in the evening and went to the old Tremont House for the night. All he had with him was an old carpetbag, and as he was unknown to the clerk he was informed that, having no baggage, he would be expected to pay in advance.

"All right," said he, reaching into his inside pocket. He drew out a pocketbook and took therefrom a $1,000 bill of his bank. The clerk took it, got out his bank detecter and looked up the standing of the Bangor bank institution. In a moment he came back and said:

"That bank has issued but three bills of that denomination."

"Yes," said the general, "and if that one is not enough for you, here's the other two." And he laid the bills before the eyes of the astonished clerk.—Boston Herald.

Moisture and Temperature.

A cubic foot of air at the temperature of zero (Fahrenheit) can contain only .5 of a grain of water vapor; at 32 degrees it can hold 2.13 grains; at 65 it can contain 6.8 grains, and at 98 it can hold 18.96 grains of moisture in suspension. These figures go to show that summer air can hold at least nine times the quantity of dampness that air can when reduced to the temperature of freezing.

An Error In English.

Even the greatest authors now and then make a little slip in their English. Thus Sir Walter Scott in his "Legend of Montrose" has this sentence: "But ere Montrose could almost see what happened Allan McAulay had rushed past him." The "almost" should come before "ere" in order to express the author's meaning.—St. Nicholas.

Lucky Man.

He (a former suitor)—So you are married after all. You told me once that you never intended to belong to any man. She—Well, that remark still holds good. "But your husband?" "Oh, he belongs to me."

Spanish Proverbs.

A Spanish proverb says that "he who makes himself all sugar the flies will eat up," but another observes, "He who makes himself all vinegar will never catch any flies."

There would be more excitement in the world if fish and hailstones were as big as the stories told about them.—Washington Post.
